CHARTER OF THE BELCONNEN COMMUNITY MEN'S SHED

NAMES and AUSPICING BODY

1. The Belconnen Community Men's Shed, hereafter referred to as "BCMS" or simply as the "Shed", is an outreach program of Mosaic Baptist Church (ACT).

Mosaic Baptist Church (ACT) is a registered trading name of Belconnen Baptist Church Incorporated.

Belconnen Baptist Church was initially established in the early 70's and was later incorporated as an Association within the ACT, complying with the Associations Act and registered as Belconnen Baptist Church Incorporated. BBC Inc. acts as the "auspicing body" for BCMS.

OBJECTIVES

2. The objectives of the BCMS are to:
 - Provide men, with a safe haven where they can relax and enjoy each others company in a non-threatening environment, and
 - Give the men attending the shed the opportunity to participate in group activities, community projects, learn or share skills or undertake a hobby.

DEFINITIONS

3. Majority – A majority decision will be determined by more than 50% of votes of attending financial members, with the additional requirement of a caveat of a quorum to ensure probity. Two exceptions are dissolution of the BCMS and changes to this Charter – see paragraphs 33 and 34.

Quorum – Any two of the President, Shed Manager, Secretary and Treasurer plus two other committee members shall make a quorum.

MEMBERSHIP

4. BCMS is to operate in an open non-denominational manner. Men attending BCMS will be encouraged to appreciate and respect the values and beliefs of other men attending BCMS.
5. Men wishing to join BCMS are to be accepted as bona fide and encouraged to become members. Induction should occur as soon as possible so that men are fully informed of their rights and responsibilities, the Rules of the Shed and the need to respect the vision and values of the "auspicing body".
6. An annual membership fee as set by committee is to be paid on application for membership. The Committee will have discretion to set aside this fee should a member's financial circumstances merit that consideration. It is contingent on a member to provide evidence of their circumstances for consideration. A member's privacy must be respected.

FINANCES

7. The finances of BCMS will be managed according to the following principles:

- BCMS is to operate as a “not for profit” out-reach program of its “auspicing body”.
- BCMS may make a contribution towards the costs borne by the “auspicing body” in regards to the operation of the shed. This includes insurance and utility expenses.
- Any monies collected by BCMS members through donation or sale of items or any other source are to be paid direct to the Treasurer.
- The Treasurer is responsible for all shed accounts.
- The books must be audited annually.

MEN'S SHED COMMITTEE

8. BCMS Committee, referred to as the Committee, is to comprise:

- The office-bearers of BCMS, and
- General Committee members.

9. The Committee will meet on an as required basis to facilitate the needs of BCMS. The duties of the Committee are:

- Approve or reject any application for new membership.
- Approve or reject any application for a project, hobby or activity that has been referred to the Committee.
- Oversee the purchase of new tools and equipment.
- Make recommendations to BCMS members in respect of new projects and/or activities.
- For good and sufficient reasons, issue a member with a caution or warning for a minor breach of BCMS rules.
- For good and sufficient reasons, terminate the membership of a member for a major breach of BCMS rules.
- Setting and/or amending operating times of BCMS.

ALL committee members are strongly encourage to actively seek out and mentor one or more understudies, for succession planning, to ease your workload and especially to get members more involved in running the shed.

SIGNAGE

10. The following attention to signage is mandated for BCMS:

- BCMS is to be well signed externally to promote the shed in the community.
- Appropriate safety signs are to be erected in areas where power tools or dangerous equipment is to be used.

MEETINGS

11. The Committee shall formally meet quarterly during the year, with one meeting that includes the AGM, at times and places as specified by the Committee. Additional meetings of the Committee may be convened by any member of the Committee.
12. BCMS is to hold an Annual General Meeting during or near August each year to elect the Committee.

COMMITTEE OFFICE-BEARERS

13. The office-bearers of BCMS shall be:

- President
- Vice President
- Shed Manager
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Safety Officer
- Property Officer
- e News and IT Officer/s
- Membership Officer

14. Each member of the Committee shall, subject to this Charter, hold office until the election of new office bearers at the Annual General Meeting following the date of the member's election, but is eligible for re-election.

15. In the event of a vacancy in the membership of the Committee, the Committee may appoint a member of BCMS to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed shall hold office, subject to this Charter, until the conclusion of the AGM next following the date of appointment.

ELECTION OF OFFICE BEARERS

16. Elections for the office-bearers and general Committee members are to be held annually. Committee members:

- May stand for re-election for consecutive terms.
- May hold a combination of roles if some Committee positions remain unfilled.
- May delegate aspects of their position on an as required basis to other members.
- The Committee should ideally include at least two members, who are also "members" of the auspicing body. Vacancies will be brought to the attention of the auspicing body.

17. If any committee position is unfilled, the duties can be shared amongst other office-bearers, or general Committee members who volunteer to undertake either the full or part duties of the office-bearers position's role. Ratification of these arrangements by a quorum should take place as soon as possible.

GENERAL COMMITTEE MEMBER

28. General Committee members shall perform such duties as the Committee from time to time may determine and assist in the furtherance of the objectives of BCMS in whatever manner the Committee determines.

CHAPLAIN

29. This general, non committee position, at BCMS, is to provide pastoral and practical support for members and their families by providing appropriate advice and encouragement, and by seeking to encourage members in their social, emotional and spiritual well-being. This service is made available by our “auspicing body” and is a voluntary service available to Shed members and their families; there is no obligation for members to avail themselves, or their families, of this service, but the Chaplain has additional resources available to him which may assist members in difficult circumstances, or he may refer members to other services as appropriate,

The specific services provided by the Chaplain include:

Actively seeking opportunities to connect informally with members during morning tea and other informal shed occasions, offering help and advice and a nonjudgemental ‘ear’.

- Working in support of members by developing relationships with them that lead to positive and Christian influences in their lives and in particular, at times of crisis, provide counsel and support
- Providing pastoral care of members which may include mentoring, coaching, referrals, family conferences, etc.
- Providing a link between the Shed, churches, community organisations, and professional agencies

- Referral of members and families for further assistance to other agencies from an extensive catalogue of professional health and welfare services.
- Assisting the Shed Manager in matters of sensitive communication with shed members and committee members to ensure effective and timely communication whilst taking into account the many issues faced in the shed environment.
- Building stronger relationships with community based organisations in the immediate community of the Shed such as churches, services, clubs, local council services, agencies etc.

Note If the “auspicing body” cannot suggest a suitable person as Chaplain, then BCMS may seek to appoint a suitable person from another church in the area.

OPENING

30. The Shed will open when there is an approved regular activity and at other times subject to approval by at least two Committee members and after consultation with the “auspicing body’s” Executive Officer.
31. BCMS is to ensure that activities conducted are notified to the “auspicing body’s” Executive Officer so that possible Men’s Shed activities that may clash with Community Centre activities can be discussed/highlighted.

MENS SHED RULES

32. The detailed arrangements and activities of the Shed shall be outlined by a set of rules and procedures which shall be prepared and implemented by the Committee, with the approval of the members. The current Shed Rules are attached as Attachment A.

CHANGES TO BCMS CHARTER

33.
 - 33.1. The BCMS Charter can only be amended by the Committee after consultation with shed members and must be ratified by the Board of the “auspicing body”.
 - 33.2. A quorum (see definition) is required of the Committee to pass any proposed changes to the Charter document after consultation with the membership has occurred.
 - 33.3. A minimum of two weeks’ notice must be given to members before a special meeting can be convened to amend the Charter and/or dissolution.

DISSOLUTION OF BCMS

34.
 - 34.1. The BCMS can be dissolved under two circumstances. The first will require a special meeting called by the BCMS Committee.

- 34.2. A quorum (see definitions) and a majority vote of two thirds of the registered BCMS members attending a special meeting is required to pass a motion to dissolve BCMS.
- 34.3. A minimum of two weeks' notice must be given to members before a special meeting can be convened to dissolve BCMS.
- 34.4. Any resolution to dissolve BCMS must be ratified by the "auspicing body's" Board.
- 34.5. The second circumstance is, if the Shed's activities are inconsistent with the vision and values of the "auspicing body", or if Shed activities/members bring the reputation of the "auspicing body" into disrepute. The "auspicing body's" Board will issue a notice to the Committee who must respond in 28 days. The final decision will be the "auspicing body's" Board to make, after consideration of the response by the Committee.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

35. The land on which the Shed resides is legally the property of the "auspicing body". In the event of BCMS being dissolved the following apply:-
 - 35.1. Any fixed asset purchased for use by BCMS (ie the actual structure, toilets, furniture and fittings etc) is to remain the property of BCMS's "auspicing body".
 - 35.2. Any tool, or piece of equipment, on loan to BCMS is to be returned to its rightful owner.
 - 35.3. Any tool, or piece of equipment, which becomes surplus shall be gifted to another Mens Shed with similar objectives to that of BCMS.
